The leading physician of the place boarded at the hotel where Mr. Cassidy stayed.
During the night the whole house was awakened by a vigorous pounding on the door.

The landlady put his head out of the window, and inquired: "What do you want?"
"A voice from the darkness replied, 'Here I am,' said the doctor, knocking his head out of the window, 'What's the matter?'"

"What's on our way!" exclaimed the voice in the darkness.
"Anything serious?" asked the doctor.
"Serious? I should say!" exclaimed the voice. "That new case, come, come, and go, has broken out in our neighborhood."

You Can't Dodge Them

Did you ever try to dodge the rain-drops? Did not succeed very well, did you? It's just as useless to try to escape from the germs of consumption. You can't do it. They are about us on every hand and we are constantly taking them into our lungs.

Then why don't we all have this disease? Simply because these germs cannot gain a foothold in a strong throat and lungs. It's when these are weak that the germs master. The body must be well supplied with fat. The danger comes when the blood is poor and the body is thin. If your cough does not yield, and your throat and lungs feel raw and sore, you should not delay another day. Take of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites at once. It will heal the inflamed membrane and greatly strengthen them as well. The digestion becomes stronger, the appetite better and the weight increases. The whole body becomes well fortified and the germs of consumption cannot gain a foothold.

It's the nourishing, sustaining and strengthening power of SCOTT'S EMULSION that has made it of such value in all wasting and exhausting diseases.

Get it in all drug stores, or by mail, at 50c. per bottle. Scott & Bowne, Chemists, New York.

AN ACROSTIC.

COMPOSED BY MISS JENNIE McGENRE, FOR HER FRIEND, MRS. HATTIE B. GUNNELL.

Hail! Friend of my birthday day,
An acrostic in your hands I lay
Telling of a lady so kind and dear
That she to her friend seem doubly near.
It is a sweet thought of the past
Ever prompts me to write, joys too sweet to last.

Beautiful music, love and flowers,
Ever attended those happy days of ours.
After having so much good fun,
Lo! a new life ours of us begun.
Love in our hearts for another has sprung.

Gentle and kind has been your life,
Rescuing others from all strife.
Into each heart some balm to pour,
Nothing but wrongs would you ignore.
Now, as your days are fast declining,
Ever remember each cloud has a silver lining.
Let no thorn be found in your closing day,
Let all be as bright as the roses of May.

BRANDENBURG.

The sale at Cal Hendrick's was largely attended.

Best of Grimes has been laid up with a violent arm.

Miss Bees Allen is with her aunt, Mrs. Blanche Fontaine.

Miss Hicks has prepared Misses Lena Nevitt and Tom Hamilton to reside at the manse.

The Normal Literary last Friday night had a full house. The school is large and still growing.

Victor Spaulding, Sam Hagan, Susan Elder and Lela Woodfolk made a party to the association.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Burdett spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis Henry in Breckinridge county.

Miss Ella Gregory, of Cloverport, will arrive soon to make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dowling.

I hear that there's a wedding on tap for this week, but I never make known of such affairs unless I am authorized.

Special Easter services at the Methodist church, next Sunday, Bro. Leitch, field warden, has a feast in store for us.

Mr. Burton, Mr. Ashcraft, Mr. and Mrs. Hardesty and K. H. Buck went to Grahamport Saturday, to the Teachers' Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Ab. Richardson, of Garfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Blane Shackett, of Ekron, spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ditt.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Ditt attended Baptist services here last Saturday. I enjoyed a short chat with that kind, congenial friend.

This is Holy week with Catholics and Episcopalians and the Fast of the Passover with all orthodox Jews who observe it elaborately.

Miss Ella Dowling, one of our brightest, sweetest girls in Louisville to come acquainted with our missionary business. All honor to her!

Mrs. Grinnell's school is free to show the progress and proficiency of her pupils. The youngest ones will play duets with their teachers.

Several of the lithographic men were here Sunday, guests of Albert Moorman. A hundred men are expected to be at work on the quarry by June 1st, so I have been told.

Every house keeper this time of the year makes nice fluffy-puffy light roller steam buns—except one—every house keeper, I mean except me, and I am neighbor to Mrs. Pugh.

The distillery where Moorman's old mill stands, had made from here, is in operation. I do not know the names of the parties who are running it, but I do know I am sorry that it is here.

Mr. Ed Goodnight and Mr. Ernest Rabbage have a cordial invitation to attend the recital. They know about these "expansion" girls up here and that there are some more attractive or charming under the sun.

Announcement cards are received from Miss Addie O. Ditt, of Louisville, as purchasing agent. She is a lady of extraordinary ability, fine taste and great experience and will fill promptly all orders in any line of goods—1913 Brook St.

Mrs. Dr. Hardin came over to our rehearsal last Saturday and said she felt young again. I don't feel quite as young as Mrs. Hardin was my pupil some twenty years ago taking active parts in rehearsals. Her children are like the mother.

Misses Lora Dowling and Ada Brown will arrive this week from Louisville with the latest novelties in Easter hats and bonnets. These young ladies are well known as stylish milliners. Saturday, April 1st is opening day. Call and see their beautiful goods.

I just keep forgetting about that new boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Graham, our popular Preston correspondent "Nancy" make Oliver rock the cradle so you can write as of yore. These ladies are veritable tyrants and one in a household is as much of a terror as a dozen. But who will give up one?

The recital is free. The last time I charged a very small admission to pay expenses, and yet I had several say to me, "I did not feel like to come." I determined then never to charge admission at another entertainment. Otherwise I would have only laid one for the benefit of the Normal Library. So everybody come.

Ellen Cross, of color, died last Saturday of measles and pneumonia. Poor Ellen! She seemed kind and humble and only a few days ago she had passed said, "Miss Hattie, I tried to stay at home and do what's right. We are judged by the Father according to our talents. At last we can only try like poor, ignorant Ellen, who, I believe, is at peace."

I have been requested by my class and by many musical people to invite Mrs. D. M. Duncan to play next Saturday night. It affords me much pleasure to know that Mrs. Duncan is so appreciated and that she will appear again. No one ever swayed a Brahmin's audience as Mrs. Duncan (nee Pearl Ditt) with her ringing, sympathetic touch, imbued her playing with delicate warmth and the most touching expression.

I have received an invitation to the marriage of Miss Charlotte Bradsher Harrison, of Irvington, and Mr. John Taylor Berry, of Clarksville, Tenn., on April nineteenth at Irvington Baptist church. Miss Charlotte has often visited here and has received much attention and has been very much admired. She is a beautiful girl of attractive personality. Mr. Berry is a man of fine business qualities. They will make their home at Clarksville after May 1st, where I hope their lives may be spent peacefully and happily.

I understand that many of my old pupils in the county, if it were possible, is favorable, attend my recital on Saturday night, April 1. In a letter from one of a sweet, charming relation to the happy home spent in the study of music with me, and of the delightful recital we held. I shall hope to see many parties from the adjacent towns. Come early. The program will not exceed two hours, thus giving plenty of time to get back before it is very late. The recital will rise at exactly 7:30.

WEBSTER.

No oats sown yet
Garden "man" will be late.

Our roads are nearly impassable.
J. M. Fish went to Irvington Sunday.

The prospect for wheat is not flattering.
We have too many so called county roads.

Hal Drake is in Louisville buying new books.
J. C. Petr, of Owensboro, was here Sunday.

G. W. Beard, of Hardinsburg, was here last week.
The Webster & Irvington telephone line is in place.

Frank Hinton was in Louisville last week selling tobacco.
Sash Jordan will move to the "Rabbit Run" farm in a short time.

Miss Lizzie Brown began a subscription school at the school-house last week.
Mrs. E. K. Kurtz, Owsboro, visited her mother, Mrs. Laura Kurtz, last week.

Mrs. E. M. Norton, who has been seriously ill for some days is somewhat improved.
It is currently reported that Charley Young, called at Mrs. Laura Kurtz's recently.

Miss Anna Orendorf, of Clifton Mills, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Anna Claycomb.

The road leading from here to the McBride school-house should be made a county road.

Remember next Sunday is the beginning of the second quarter in Presbyterian literature.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Ketch visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kays, at Lodiport Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Minnie Davis Davis, of West View, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ditt, last week.

Hicks had lost back to his larder. He has some strong rivals as weather prognosticators around here.

Geo. Neff, of Guston, was here last week and put in telephone boxes for H. C. Kurtz and J. Parks.

J. M. Fitch threw the door of his blacksmith shop open Monday, a new candidate for public patronage.

Herbert Haddock, a promising young man of Clifton Mills, has entered Prof. Graham's school at Irvington.

We have one telephone line completed and another in progress of construction. If you want to call us up.

H. L. Kurtz attended Miss Ditt's birthday party at Clifton Mills last Saturday night and reported an enjoyable time.

T. J. Compton and T. W. McCoy went to Ekron Sunday to see their grandmothers, Mrs. Susan Adkinson, who is reported seriously ill.

The old hen markets her daily visits to the garden, but turn away with an air of sad disappointment because the garden is not so greened here.

Archibald McDonald has been employed to run the Clifton Mills. Mr. McDonald is a first-class miller and this already popular mill should now receive increased patronage.

There are many roads in this county that should be discontinued as county roads and perhaps in a few instances new roads should be opened up. But the great object at present should be fewer and better roads.

Not only should every church in this county have a Sunday school but every Sunday school should be organized on the basis of sections remote from churches. Let our county and district Sunday-school officials see to this matter.

G. W. Robbins died the 18th inst. and his remains were interred in the Freedom cemetery the day following. An exemplary citizen, a good neighbor, a Christian gentleman. The people of this community mourn his departure and extend condolence to his bereaved family.

GLENDANE.

Editor Rabbage was here Friday and Saturday.

J. B. Birks, insurance man, was here last week.

W. J. Dwan, Sr., spent last week in Owensboro.

Miss Mary Mattingly went home sick last Thursday.

Old Ben and Mr. Obeuchain have moved to McDuffey.

Jeff Owen was too sick to be on duty Monday morning.

Luther Ashley and George Willis went to Harrodsburg.

Tom Nantz Green went to Louisville Saturday for a short visit.

'Attorneys Rabbage and Howell' were here on all business Friday.

Mrs. Nora Venable, Harrodsburg, visited Mr. Joe Mattingly last week.

County Clerk Wells, of Drayton county, was here on business last week.

Kenneth Robertson is in Owensboro on business as the city part of week.

Jimmy Lewis, Harrodsburg, made a brief visit to friends here last week.

A scheme in the section boundary lets Joe Mattingly go but last about below Glendane, but extends his part of the road nearly to Harrodsburg. He says they are putting it in line order.

Guthrie Tucker, Burns, was the guest of Miss Moona Hunter a day or two last week.

Wood V. Wortham is going to remove from his farm, near here, back to Owensboro.

Mrs. Dave Howard and daughter, Mrs. Blain, were guests of Mrs. Dr. Dempster Saturday.

Miss Mary Moorman, who has spent the winter in St. Louis, is expected home before many weeks.

Johnson Avenue, separating Julian Brown's acre from the main part of town, is being opened.

Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Swain, Short Creek, are visiting Mr. Shain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hinson.

Dave Moorman has about thirty acres of land cleared this past winter. He will have the most of it set in tobacco.

Lee Montgomery is conductor on the passenger, Mr. Tylford is running the freight. They are a temporary change.

Mrs. Bill Harrison and children went to Owensville Saturday, where they will join Mr. Harrison, who has employment at that place.

Dr. Dempster is taking the lead in spring whitewashing and his example should be followed by all who love health and the beautiful.

Foramont with W. C. Moorman are looking for a place to locate the lot between his and Dewees' stores. Already he has sowed it in grass, and beautified as he will have it in time, it will add greatly to the loveliness of our little village.

Miss Willa Owen has returned from an absence of three weeks in southern Kentucky, Tennessee and eastern Kentucky. Beesville, Bong Green, Franklin, Nashville, Gallatin and other towns were visited. Her ride through Nashville, met many old friends and found numerous new ones, and came back delighted and improved in health.

June Owen, thoughtfully as he is kind, kind as he is high-spirited, and as big-hearted as anybody, informs me that the most popular book now selling in Louisville are: Adventures of Francis, Aylwin, Afterwards, Celebrity, Days Work, David Harum, I and Tuen and the Other Old Old Chester Tales, People's Progress and When Knighthood was in Flower.

Cute and full of prettier reasoning are some of the sayings of the little. Little Betty Moorman claims an envelope "letter sack" who is a child's readiness to apply knowledge. A good many times lately she has heard of people "breaking out" with the measles. The breaking buds on the early gooseberry bushes caught her eye a few days ago, and said, "Mamma, see how the gooseberry bushes are breaking out! Bright are they who can learn the little one and wise are they who learn of the babes in their infancy."

STEPHENSPORT
Remember choir practice Friday evening.

O. J. Shelman was in Cloverport Saturday.

Mrs. C. C. Lewis was in Cloverport for a day last week.

Miss Lena Payne gave a birthday dinner to a few friends Sunday.

Mrs. H. S. English returned last week from a visit to Long Branch.

Rev. A. F. Beare is preaching a series of sermons at the City Hall. Regular services were held in the M. E. church Sunday by pastor.

Mrs. S. B. Blain spent a few days last week in Sample with her daughter.

Mrs. K. L. Ida and Mr. B. Crawford attended church at Union Star Saturday.

Mrs. E. H. Miller, Mrs. F. O. Ferry and son F. Miller, spent Friday in Cloverport.

Mr. F. M. Mooney and daughter, Miss Blanche Clay, were in Cloverport Friday shopping.

Rev. W. H. English, pastor of Baptist church, Ruff Hill, Mo., is at home for a few weeks.

Floyd St. E. Miller, after spending a few days at Channell, returned to his home last week in Henderson.

The "Thrilling poetical effusion" of last week, was somewhat marred by a few mistakes in rhyme and measure.

John Blain, now of Louisville, was on the west bound train Friday enroute to his home in Henderson to visit his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Blain have moved into the cottage vacated by Dr. D. White. As this is their first venture in home keeping, we wish them success.

Luig Irritation
is the forerunner to consumption. Dr. Bell's Pink Pills for Pale People cure it and give strength to the lungs that a cough or cold will not settle there. Twenty-five cents at all drug stores.

PRESTON.

A. M. Hardin, of Lodiport, was visiting relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paris Barr visited relatives at Union Star last week.

James Bargar sold a fine mule, Saturday, to Mr. Clarkson, of Big Springs, for $60.

Miss Lena Lay, of Stephensport, will begin a sewing school here on the 3rd of April.

Mrs. Beglar, who has been visiting relatives here, returned to her home in Louisville last week.

Mrs. W. M. Frymire returned home Sunday.

She has been in Louisville for a week, leaving the latest style in hats and bonnets.

Frank Delavan, of near Harrodsburg, was in this community last week trying to buy a span of mules, but found none to suit him.

The little daughter of Miss Miller of Sample, will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Hugh Frymire, and attend the spring school here.

Misses Carrie and Maud Burger attended church at Union Star, Sunday.

Miss McCubbin, of Ohio, died on the 19th, of congestion of the brain, and was buried at the Bruner graveyard on 20th. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of all.

Many to attend there.
Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Casareta, Lindy Clutter, clear your skin and keep it clean, by starting up the liver and driving all impurities from the body. IRVINGTON.

Albert Moorman is the guest of his brother, Dr. Lee Moorman.

Mrs. Herndon and Mrs. Wimp were guests of Mrs. Wathen last Friday.

Mrs. B. E. Hawes has returned from a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Harrodsburg. She will return with her and will remain several days.

The May Musical Festival promises to be a greater success than ever before. With such an array of talent as has been engaged the most critical cannot fail to be satisfied.

The days of sack cloth and ashes are drawing to a close and Easter will soon be upon us. It is to be hoped nature will send us a beautiful day, with a shower and come out in hoped freshness and gorgeousness than she has done for some time past. We will welcome the change.

Many of "our readers" will have noticed the new paper, the "Irvington" of "Ian McElwain" on "Certain traits of Scotch Character." The preview of the Scotch for Irvington was certainly very interesting. It dealt with the life and portrait of "Bonnie Rie Rie Rie." This has been highly entertaining. This is one of the disadvantages of "country life," we miss all the good things.

The children will leave for Scotland as soon as possible, during the past month the eyes of the whole world have been concentrated upon this family. Their arrival in New York was heralded over the country with the rapidity that telegraphic communication can't carry—but money, position nor case interfere with the work of that moving force "The Will." Soon after their arrival Mr. Kipling, was stricken with pneumonia, which came near being fatal and their eldest daughter died of the same dreaded disease. What a sad ending to a chapter so full of hope and promise.

BEWLEYVILLE.
Dose country school to telephonic communication.

Sunday school and class meeting were our Sunday services.

The rain prevented attendance at the missionary meeting.

Edwin Jolly visited Harriet Cain last Friday in New York was here all over the country with the rapidity that telegraphic communication can't carry—but money, position nor case interfere with the work of that moving force "The Will." Soon after their arrival Mr. Kipling, was stricken with pneumonia, which came near being fatal and their eldest daughter died of the same dreaded disease. What a sad ending to a chapter so full of hope and promise.

David Harward made a speedy return from Jefferson county.

Eva McGlothlin was the guest of Mrs. B. McGlothlin, Sunday.

Lewis Jolly, of Irvington, was the guest of Harriet Pugh Saturday.

Jim Morton, of Louisville, visited his niece Z. Stith, a few days recently.

There is a considerable move for a telephone from our town to Irvington.

All sorts of Canned Goods on sale at Albert Thompson and go to Guston.

Ray Keith had fun taking an otter-skin cow and calf to Garrettsville, Saturday.

Miss Mary Paul, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Will Paul, has returned to her home.

Misses Willa and Nell Drury are students at Pewee Valley, and report themselves well pleased.

T. J. Jolly is doing what he can to make a good district Sunday School Convention at Webster, May 30th.

There was an impromptu dinner party at Dewey's tonight, Thursday, composed of friends of ladies. Let's pass it around.

The protected meeting at the Methodist church commenced Monday evening, March 27th. Bro. Bigham, from Harrodsburg, will assist Bro. Walton in the services. Come one and all.

The Ladies Club met with Mrs. B. B. McGlothlin, Friday, March 24th. Besides the issues there were other nice things by way of entertainment. I wish we could have visitors to enter into the spirit of things and help us out.
